Press Quotes

"Serving good times with a twist - From Pueblo's party band comes a self-produced and punchy pack of 11 songs that wraps up pop, rock, funk, reggae — even bro-country — in a horn-driven, polished package ["Last Call" - The Martini Shot]."

- jpompia@chieftain.com, The Pueblo Chieftain (May 26, 2016)

"The Martini Shot Band was absolutely amazing at our Wedding! We wanted to have the best band and make sure people were having a great time. The Martini Shot Band was exactly that! They are incredibly talented, easy to work with and exceeded our expectations in every way! They were so good that our friends and family keep coming up to us months after our wedding to tell us that our wedding was the most fun because they never stopped dancing! We have the utmost respect for the band and wish we could do it over just to work with them again!"

- Callie and Nick

- Beyond The Fold - Pueblo Chieftain (Jan 28, 2011)

"The reason for the band's (essentially) guaranteed appearance is simple: appeal. Martini Shot routinely draws an audience of 1000 people or more for its rock/pop shows. Its record is 1,916 people in the summer of 2007, Hart said."

- Amy Matthew, Pueblo Chieftain (Jul 08, 2011)
